

The Context of the Bible

Small Group Study Questions

- What do you think it means when we say “the Bible can never mean what it never meant”?
- What was one of your greatest take aways from this class?
- In what ways has your faith been strengthened and thinking stimulated through this class?
- What practicals do you plan to implement in your life and faith after this class?
- In what ways do you need to understand the geographical, historical, and cultural context of the Bible world in order to better apply it to your life?
- How are you more prepared to share your faith and the story of God with others after this class?
- How will this class shape your approach to your own Bible study?
- How can you start talking with others about your obedience of what you read in the Scriptures, and helping others to do the same?
- What is one thing you didn't like about the class and why?

